General Information for Requesting a Dependency Status Override

A student who does not meet the federal criteria for independent status on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) may submit this form and supporting documentation for a determination if unusual circumstances exist for granting a dependency status override. The Higher Education Act allows a financial aid administrator to make dependency overrides on a case-by-case basis for students with unusual circumstances.

Note: Parents refusal or unwillingness to contribute to your education and/or student financial independence are not considered extenuating circumstances. Extreme circumstances DO include an abusive family environment or abandonment by parents.

Required Documentation

- 2020-21 Verification Form 1 Independent Student
- Your 2018 tax transcript and/or all 2018 W2 forms.
- A personal letter (typed, signed and dated) explaining in detail the unusual circumstances and why you do not have contact with your parents. Include a description of your living arrangements over the past year and who has provided financial support for you.
- A letter (typed, signed and dated) from a third party, in a position of honesty and not related to you, that can attest to your situation (ie. counselor, teacher, pastor).
- Legal documents to support your request to be deemed independent from your parents (ie. police report, death certificate, court order).

Submit all requirements to the Financial Aid Office.
