

LAMAR COMMUNITY COLLEGE RANCH SEMINAR SERIES

Fall Sessions/Topics:

September 22, 2025

- TRAC (Total Ranch Analysis for Colorado)
Ryan D. Rhoades, Ph.D., Assoc. Professor,
Beef Extension Specialist, Colorado State
University
- Value Adding Calves for Auction
John Campbell, Winter Livestock

October 6, 2025

- Herd Management / Nutrition
Justin Waggoner, Ph.D., Professor/Beef
Systems Extension Specialist, Kansas State
University
- Direct Marketing Insight
Josh and Jana Weimer, Wiley Ranch Beef

October 20, 2025

- Beef Quality Assurance
Libby Bigler, Colorado BQA Coordinator,
Colorado State University
- Livestock Insurance Insight
Nick and Emily Palmer, Golden Plains
Insurance

$400 for all 6 sessions
(2 persons per farm/ranch)
$100 drop-in per session
(2 persons per farm/ranch)

5:30 pm check-in
Session 6 pm - 8 pm

Bowman Large Lecture Hall
2401 S. Main Street
Lamar, CO 81052

Spring 2026 Sessions:
Jan. 26th, Feb 23rd, March 23rd

- Weaning Options/Forages
- Beef Quality Analysis
- Market Conditions

Join Lamar Community College and industry leaders in a series designed to equip producers, ranchers, and agri-business owners with practical, up-to-date strategies for success. This seminar series focuses on real-world applications in production, management, and market sustainability.

Brian Gauck, Ph.D.
Agriculture Faculty
(719) 336-1626
Brian.Gauck@lamarcc.edu

Rick Robbins
Adjunct Instructor
(719) 691-0487
Richard.Robbins@lamarcc.edu

LAMAR
COMMUNITY
COLLEGE